

DISCRIMINATION IS AGAINST THE LAW!

St. Vincent's Health System complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex.

St. Vincent's Health System does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex.

St. Vincent's Health System provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters; and
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats and other formats).

St. Vincent's Health System provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:

- Qualified interpreters; and
- Information written in other languages.

If you need these services, contact your St. Vincent's Health System Caregiver.

If you believe that St. Vincent's Health System has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex, you can file a grievance with:

Corporate Responsibility Officer
